My happy Jar

Continue the positive thinking by writing the positive things that have happened to you on little pieces of paper. I.e. surprises, gifts, accomplished goals, 'lol' moments and great memories. Keep all of the positive memories in a Happy Jar. Then at the end of the month (or when you are feeling a little blue) open your jar and celebrate all the positive things that have happened to you. Meerkat Paw

Pretend you're a meerkat and your hand is a paw. Place your thumb over the palm. Gently and lightly circle your thumb over the palm. This will help your meerkat brain calm down. Repeat

Sleepy elephant

Imagine you are really sleepy elephant and are about to sleep for a hundred years. Take a deep breath and notice how your chest expands as you breathe in. As you breathe out, let out a long yawn. See how long and big you can make your yawn. How do you feel

Monkey Climb

Get into partners and put your hands around your partner's wrist. Imagine your partner's arm is a tree and your hands are the monkey's. Gently squeeze their wrist, lower arm, upper arm and shoulders as you climb the tree. Climb down the other arm. Say to your-

Meerkat stretch

Imagine you are a meerkat. Sit up straight. Look all the way over to your right. How far can your head go? What can you see? Now come back to the front and close your eyes. Keeping your head still, imagine you are a meerkat keeping watch, and can turn your head all the way round. Now, open your eyes and look at your right.

Stomach make sure the elephant does not squish you

You are lied down and a baby elephant is coming towards you. Tighten your stomach muscles incase it walks over you. The elephant has gone so you can relax..oh wait its back, quick, tighten your stomach muscles again, just incase it walks over you. Don't

Shoulders and neck: Hide in your shell

Now pretend you are a turtle. Try to pull your head into your shell. Try to pull your shoulders up to your ears and push your head down into your shoulders. Hold it tight! Hold for ten seconds. OK, you can come out now.
